The American Revolution Institute of the Society of the Cincinnati, Inc., promotes knowledge and appreciation for the achievement of American independence, fulfilling the aim of the Continental Army officers, and their French counterparts, who founded the Society of the Cincinnati in 1783, to perpetuate the memory and legacy of the American Revolution. The Institute fulfills that aim by supporting advanced study, developing changing exhibitions and other historical programs and tours, advocating historic preservation, and providing resources nationwide to enrich the understanding of our War of Independence and the principles of the men and women who secured the liberty of the American people.
